

KINDA FONDA WANDA

A high-octane, rock 'n' roll, honky-tonk experience inspired by the Queen of Rockabilly - Wanda Jackson - featuring the dynamic vocals of Amanda White.

Formed in 2018, the group has swiftly developed a full repertoire of Wanda Jackson hits and deep tracks like Let's Have A Party, Stupid Cupid, Hard Headed Woman, Fujiyama Mama and more. They also put their own stamp on cool cuts by Patsy Cline, Barbara Mandrell, Elvis and Ray Charles. March 2022 sees the release of two great original compositions on 45rpm, CD and streaming! Beyond the Twin Cities, KFW have been well-received in greater Minnesota, and at car shows and festivals throughout the Midwest and South Carolina.

"Holy cats, Amanda White has a voice that is glorious and a heart full of passion for Wanda Jackson. And Alan Subola is beyond words on guitar. ...an amazing evening."

-- Minneapolis StarTribune Pick Six (May 2021)

"Take some seasoned music vets, inject the rockabilly spirit and classic country influence of a young Wanda Jackson and toss with the extroverted energy of vocalist Amanda White: the result? Magnificent Fun!" – Steve McClellan
(First Avenue general manager, music business legend)

Amanda White - vocals

Powerhouse lead vocalist generates a freight train of emotional excitement with her unchained soulful wail. She also sings with The Fattenin' Frogs.

Al Subola - guitar

An award-winning guitarist and songwriter with glowing reviews from magazines like Vintage Guitar and MOJO. He leads The Bad Companions and is a veteran of Twin Cities punkabilly combo The Vibro Champs.

Mo Engel - drums

A versatile Twin Cities music vet, he's played with the Hot Head Swing Band, Chan Poling, Saddle Sores and many more. Mo keeps the beat going and also chimes in on harmonies.

Drew Miller - bass

Founder of Boiled in Lead "...prime purveyorsof a style of Celtic music infused with punkrockattitude..." With a star on the First Avenue wall, BiL have won over 25 MN Music Academy awards.
